

A round loaf of bread with a dark, cracked crust is nestled in a woven basket. The bread is wrapped in a light green paper band. The band features the text 'Brasserie Bread' at the top, 'Single Origin' in a large, elegant script font in the center, and 'Grain source: Southern Flinders Ranges | Sourdough' at the bottom. The bread is surrounded by wheat stalks and rests on a bed of light-colored grains, possibly rice or wheat, within a paper-lined basket.
